

BROADS AUTHORITY INFORMATION CENTRES

Broads Authority Yacht Stations and Information Centres stock a range of information, including Waterways Code leaflet, maps, guides and books, plus boat safety DVDs. You can also pay for short visit boat tolls. The centres run eco-friendly boat trips and are located close to moorings at:

- (River Bure) Hoveton/Wroxham, Station Road, Hoveton NR12 8UR
Tel: 01603 782281 E-mail: hovetontic@broads-authority.gov.uk
Opens April - November.
- (River Ant) How Hill National Nature Reserve, Ludham NR29 5PG
Tel: 01692 678763 E-mail: toadholetic@broads-authority.gov.uk
Opens 26 March - November.
- (River Bure) Ranworth Staithe, Ranworth NR13 6HY
Tel: 01603 756094 E-mail: ranworthtic@broads-authority.gov.uk
Opens April - November.

INFORMATION FOR VISITORS

www.visitthebroads.co.uk

The Broads Authority's visitor website has details of hundreds of ways for you to make the most of your time on the Broads.

The FREE visitor magazine Broadcaster is widely available and contains useful maps and charts of approximate passage times between locations.