

BROADS AUTHORITY VISITOR CENTRES

Broads Authority Yacht Stations and Visitor Centres stock a range of information, including Waterways Code leaflet, maps, guides and books, plus boat safety DVDs. You can also pay for short visit boat tolls. The centres run eco-friendly boat trips and are located close to moorings at:

- (River Bure) Hoveton/Wroxham, Station Road, Hoveton NR12 8UR
Tel: 01603 756097 E-mail: hovetontic@broads-authority.gov.uk
Open: Daily from Easter until end of October.
- (River Ant) How Hill Nature Reserve, Ludham NR29 5PG
Tel: 01603 756096 E-mail: toadholetic@broads-authority.gov.uk
Open: Daily from Easter until end of October.
- (River Bure) Ranworth Staithe, Farm Lane, Ranworth NR13 6HY
Tel: 01603 756094 E-mail: ranworthtic@broads-authority.gov.uk
Open: Daily from Easter until end of October.

INFORMATION FOR VISITORS

www.visitthebroads.co.uk

The Broads Authority's visitor website has details of hundreds of ways for you to make the most of your time on the Broads.

The FREE visitor magazine Broadcaster is widely available and contains useful maps and charts of approximate passage times between locations.